Unsure of how to vote?

The Catholic Church does not endorse any candidates or parties, but the Church does advocate for public policies that serve the common good and are aligned with Church teachings. When considering political candidates' views on public policies, we recommend reading Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship: A Call to Political Responsibility, <https://www.usccb.org/issues-and-action/faithful-citizenship/forming-consciences-for-faithful-citizenship-title>.

For accurate information about the Church's stance on national public policy issues, refer to the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) website: <https://www.usccb.org/>. Consult the Washington State Catholic Conference (WSCC) website, <https://wacatholics.org/>, for information about state and local public policies. You may encounter websites, sources, or mailers that claim to be Catholic. However, they may not be officially aligned with or sanctioned by the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB). If a source tells you to support a specific candidate or political party, it is most certainly not officially aligned with the Catholic Church.

"Check Reject" on Referendum 90 (R-90)

The bishops of Washington state encourage you to "Check Reject" on R-90. R-90 gives voters the opportunity to reject the Comprehensive Sexual Health Education (CSHE) law passed in March. Formerly Senate Bill 5395, this law requires state school districts to provide CSHE to all students in grades kindergarten through 12. CSHE, also called Comprehensive Sex Ed (CSE), is not aligned with Church teachings and does not allow school boards and local communities to fully determine their own policies in this sensitive area.
